ORDERS OF THE DAY

MOTION

1. The Untold Hardship of Many Nigerians Who Deposited Their Money in Some Failed Banks and Financial Institutions:

Senator John K Bramaifa: - (Bayelsa West)

Whereas the issue of failed Banks and some Financial Institutions in the Country and the inability of many Nigerian depositors to retrieve their money from such Banks is no longer news;

Whereas the Nigerian Deposit Insurance Corporation (NIDC), which is the body statutorily empowered to protect depositors has failed to carry out its responsibilities;

Whereas the Governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN), in a public statement sometimes in 2006 assured the depositors of total repayment of their money within six months;

Whereas the attitude of Nigerian Deposit Insurance Corporation (NIDC) and the indifference of the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) have created so much uncertainty and apprehension among the depositors to the extent that many have lost their businesses, others their lives, some, their marriages and some have withdrawn their wards from school, others are sick and unable to get medical treatment.

BE it resolved and it is hereby resolved:

† That this Distinguished Senate do direct its Committee on Banking, Insurance and Financial Institutions to thoroughly investigate all the issues raised and report back within one week.
