The Senate,

Notes with heavy heart, the death of His Majesty, Da Dr. Victor Dung Pam, the Gbong Gwom Jos, in the early hours of Saturday 7th March, 2009 at the Jos University Teaching Hospital at the age of 73 years;

Notes also that Da Dr. Victor Dung Pam was born on March 4th 1936 in Du Village of Jos South Local Government of Plateau State. He attended the famous Government College, Keffi between 1950 and 1955; he obtained a Bachelor of Divinity from the Theological College of Northern Nigeria; He was member of the Senior Executive Course 2 at the National Institute for Policy and Strategic Studies (NIPSS), Kuru – Jos in 1980. He attended courses at the Detective Training College, Wakefield and Scottish Police College both in England in 1960 and 1969 respectively; Senior Officer Training College Melbourne, Australia in 1973.

Notes further that the Late Gbong Gwom started his working life at the Department of Antiquities, Jos Museum as a Technical Officer. He then joined the Nigerian Police as a Cadet Sub-Inspector of Police in 1958. He became an Assistant Superintendent in 1960, a Commissioner of Police in 1975, an Assistant Inspector-General in 1981; Commander of the National Guard of Nigeria between 1990 and 1991; He ascended the exalted position of a Deputy Inspector-General before he retired from the Nigerian Police;

Observes that Late Da Dr. Victor Dung Pam ascended the revered throne of Gbong Gwom Jos on 17th April, 2004, thus fulfilling the clarion Chant of the entire Berom people for a born leader and King;

Observes also that the Late Da. Dr. Dung Pam served his people and the Nation meritoriously, with integrity, courage, steadfastness and without blemish, courting the admiration and respect of all and sundry;

Notes that he will be remembered by the various programmes and projects he championed in the areas of peaceful co-existence amongst communities, war against social vices and also economic empowerment which cut across the length and breadth of Plateau State and the Nation.

Notes also that as the Chairman, Jos Joint Traditional Council, Chairman, Plateau State Traditional Council, he will be remembered as a Monarch who spent most of his life making right the wrongs that over the years have become a culture to the people and society around him;

Notes further that the demise of Da Dr. Dung Pam is a monumental loss. He will not only be missed by his family, his people, the Berom race, but the entire Nigeria.

ADIEU DA DR. DUNG PAM!

Accordingly Resolves to:

- (ii) Observe one minute silence in honour of Late Da Dr. Victor Dung Pam;
- (ii) Send a delegation to commiserate with his family, the people and government of Plateau State.
