The House:

Notes that hundreds of lives are lost daily as a result of delays, denials or complete absence of emergency treatment to victims of accidents and gun- shots;

Disturbed that concerned citizens avoid assisting such victims due to fear of possible police harassment or prosecution;

Aware that hospitals across the country insist on police reports before treating such victims;

Concerned about the efficacy of the operation of ambulance services and toll-free emergency telephone numbers across the country;

Resolves to:

- Adopted as amended.*
- (i) mandate the Inspector-General of Police to issue a categorical statement directing registered Hospitals and Medical Centres across the country to treat accident and gun-shot wound victims;
 - (if) call on the Inspector-General of Police to issue a standard Form to be completed and returned by the medical unit treating victims of accident and gun-shot wounds within 24 hours of admission to the nearest Police Station;
 - (iii) direct the Nigeria Police Force (NPF), the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC), Nigerian Emergency Management Agency (NEMA), Nigerian Medical Association (NMA), Federal and State Fire Services, Nigerian Civil Defence Corps, National Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW), National Orientation Agency (NOA) and NGOs to liaise with the Federal and State Ministries of Health to embark on aggressive public enlightenment on First Aid and Health Care emergency procedures as well as establish National, Regional and District Ambulance services to cater for such victims; and
 - (iv) urge the Nigerian Communications Commission (NCC) to direct all service providers in the country to create universal toll-free emergency numbers.
