Notes, the Premature and Compulsory Retirement of Rear Admiral J. O. Kpokpogri and Nine Others from the Service of the Nigerian Navy;

Aware, of the role played by the Officers and Men of the Nigerian Navy in the defence of Nigeria's territorial integrity;

Concerned, that the retired Officers have distinguished themselves in the Service of the Nigerian Navy and are among the best crop of Nigerian Naval Officers;

Disturbed, that their premature and compulsory retirement of these Officers would cause untold suffering and hardship to them and their immediate families and also a great loss to the nation.

Resolves to:

set up an Ad-Hoc Committee to investigate the pre-mature and compulsory retirement of these Officers without regard to due process as enshrined in Chapter 9, 09.02 of the Harmonised Terms and Conditions of Service of the Nigerian Armed Forces Officers Regulation Law, 2004.

CONSIDERATION OF REPORT

2. Ad-Hoc* Committee on the Review of the House Standing Orders:

Hon. Ita Enang:

"That this House do consider the Report of the Ad-Hoc Committee on the Review of the House Standing Orders and approve the Recommendations therein" (Laid: 26/6/2007).
