The House:

Notes, the wrong location of a Prison in the centre of Ikot Ekpene town which is aesthetically unsuitable for modern civility;

Further notes, that it is the only prison, situated within 100 metres of any seat of administration, of any of the three tiers of government;

Recognizes, that one could not continue to ignore this colonial error, as the location of a dilapidated prison in the centre of a town constitutes an environmental and security hazard;

Disturbed, that a permanent site strategically and suitably situated and almost 85 percent completed, has been abandoned for over 25 years (1980-2007);

Further disturbed, over this prolonged negligence in completing this structure and relocating the prison to its permanent site;

Worried, that this abandoned project has become an eye-sore and a waste of financial resources plunged into it by the Federal Government;

Resolves to:

Urge the President to direct the Federal Ministry of Interior to as a matter of urgency ensure the completion of the permanent site and the subsequent relocation of this moribund prison to the permanent site.
