Hon. Olakunle Salako	Hon. Suleiman Kokori Abdul	Hon. Aro Bamidele Samuel
Hon. Lanre Agoro	Hon. Bashir Adamu Kazaure

The House:

Notes the alarming rate of armed robbery, and general insecurity in the Country;

Worried that Residents in the country, can no longer move freely to conduct their daily activities for fear of the incessant attacks by these armed bandits;

Regress the recent assassination of our late colleague, Hon. Segun Oladimeji, Hon. Samuel Gonna, former Chairman of Kwali Area Council, Federal Capital Territory and the armed robbery attacks on various banks in the country;

Recalls the number of assassinations that have taken place in the past in the country without possible clues for the arrest of the perpetrators of these dastardly acts;

Further regrets the bad image these nefarious activities have given the country;

Acknowledges that every citizen has a right to be adequately protected by the Government as enshrined in the 1999 Constitution;

Determined to curb the menace of the men of the underworld and guarantee adequate protection for all Nigerians;

Resolves to:

Hon. Nnanah Uzor Kalu

The House:

Notes the increase of armed robbery on banks premises and Bullion Vans as widely reported in our national dailies resulting in untimely death of Policemen guarding the banks;

Worried that on the average over 100 Policemen and Private Security Guards attached to banks are killed monthly as a result of these dastardly attacks;

Further worried that innocent lives have been lost and properties worth Millions of Naira are carted away as a result of these attacks;

Disturbed that a situation where Policemen attached 10 banks and those escorting Bullion Vans are prone to incessant attacks has instilled fear in the minds of innocent citizens going to these banks for transaction;

Resolves to:

Mandate the Joint Committee on Banking and Currency, Police Affairs and National Security and Intelligence to urgently investigate this ugly incident with a view to proffering solution and Report to the House within two weeks.
