 The House:

Notes that on Sunday, 18 January, 2008, Shefiu Salaudeen, a Nigerian resident in Ukraine was stabbed to death in the neck at about 8.00 p.m. while trying to board a bus;

A ware that the late Mr Salaudeen is married to a Ukrainian with one child, and has been resident there legally since 2001;

Worried that 48 hours after the incident, representatives of the Nigerian mission in Kiev, Ukraine have taken no step whatsoever to look into the matter despite the protest by Nigerian student to the consular;

Disturbed that his corpse cannot be released for burial because the police are requesting the presence of Nigerian High Commission officials who have shown no concern;

Further worried that another young Nigerian should not be allowed to die in vain;

Recall that two Nigerians are currently languishing in jail in Kiev, Ukraine, detained without trial for over two years;

Resolves to:

- (i) condemn the passive action and total lack of concern by officials of the Nigerian High Commission in Ukraine on this matter and call for their immediate intervention;
- (ii) mandate the House Joint Committee on Diaspora, Foreign Affairs and Justice to conduct full investigation on the matter and report back to the House in three weeks.
