ORDERS OF THE DAY

MOTION:

1. Rising Wave of Crimes, Especially the Recent Assassinations in Nigeria:
Senator Victor Ndoma-Egba (SAN):
Senator Jonathan S. Zwingina:
Senator Bassey Ewa Henshaw:
Senator Adeleke O. Mamora:
Senator Dalhatu S. Tafida:
Senator Effiong D. Bob:
Senator Udoma Udo Udoma:

WHEREAS innocent Nigerians, both high and low have continued to lose their lives through assassinations;

WHEREAS Security Agencies, especially the Police, charged with the responsibility of protecting the lives and properties of Nigerians have not lived up to expectation;

WHEREAS the chain of previous assassinations has remained practically unsolved and unresolved;

WHEREAS the general condition of insecurity in the Nation has continued to deteriorate;

BE it resolved, and it's hereby resolved:

- (i) That Senate condemns in the strongest possible terms, the spate of assassinations in the country;
- (ii) That Senate condoles with the families of all victims of assassinations in the recent past;
- (iii) That excuses from the Security Agencies and the Police in relation to unsolved and unresolved murders would no longer be acceptable;
- (iv) That the Police and other Security Agencies should immediately unravel the mystery surrounding the recent assassinations of Chief Funso Williams and Dr. Ayodeji Daramola (not excluding those before them), not only as a debt it owes the nation but also to engender the much-needed confidence of the Nigerian public;
- (v) That those found guilty of perpetrating these heinous crimes be made to face the full wrath of the law to serve as deterrent to others;
- (vi) That the Inspector-General of Police and Director General of the State Security Services be summoned to explain to the Senate the reasons behind the rising crime wave (especially assassinations), and the apparent inability of the Security Agencies to conclusively apprehend and prosecute the perpetrators of these heinous crimes.
