THE INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF RT HON. AMINU WAZIRI TAMBUAL, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF NIGERIA (6TH OF JUNE 2011)

TIME TO REMAKE NIGERIA

Your Excellencies,

Dear Honourable Colleagues,

I must begin by saluting the courage, maturity and sportsmanship of Hon. Mulikat Adeola Akande.

I thank you for your kind support and sacrifice in electing me the Speaker and my dear brother Deputy Speaker of the 7th House of Representatives of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. I am greatly honoured and humbled by your trust. I accept this responsibility as a privilege and as a caretaker of the House of Representatives for the Nigerian people and for you, my Honourable Colleagues. I am enormously indebted to you all and greatly challenged by the tasks before us. I must prove myself worthy of the trust and confidence you have reposed in me.

I congratulate all of you on your election. I warmly welcome our new Honourable Colleagues. Your constituents have placed enormous trust in you. You must succeed. Part of my responsibilities as the Speaker is to ensure you succeed. That I will do. Public service is a noble calling - the spirit of common good must inhabit in us. With our patriotism, optimism and commitment, we shall together become an 'A Team' for the remaking of our dear Country, Nigeria.

I acknowledge with humble gratitude your families, friends and loved ones for their support and sacrifices. I acknowledge with humble gratitude our constituents for their undiminishable trust and goodwill. In voting us, our constituents issued us a specific mandate — to make life better for them, their children and their communities. Today, we must begin to fulfill that mandate and repay their trust.

I pay tribute to His Excellency, our President, Dr Goodluck Ebele Jonathan, His Excellency the Vice-President, Arc. Mohammed Namadi Sambo and the eminent men and women that facilitate the work of the Executive Arm of the Federal Government. We support and will continue to support the great plans of our President to revamp our economy and renew our nation. My humble respect goes to His Excellency, the President of the Senate and all the Distinguished Senators of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. I recognise my Lord the Chief Justice of the Federation and all other Justices and judges of the Judicial Arm. Permit me to specially recognise my respected Colleagues, members of the Nigerian Bar for their role in the Nigerian Rule of Law project. I also appreciate the Civil Society Organizations, for their tireless efforts to move Nigeria forward. We ask all of you for your understanding, support and partnership.

I pay tribute to the Founding Fathers of our Nation for the heritage of equity, peace and justice they passed to us.

Dear Honourable Colleagues, with your votes for me, you have spoken very clearly and endorsed the new direction the House of Representatives will take — the route to remake Nigeria; to make Nigeria a Country of peace, justice and unity, a Country that protects her Citizens and affords each of them access to opportunities for a productive and enterprising life. That is the Nigeria we shall work for; you and I; propelled by a patriotic zeal and bound by a patriotic bond.

For too long have we lived in mutual suspicion, distrust and disunity. For far too long have we dwelled on the things that divide more than the things that unite us. Nigeria is greater than the sum of our individual ambitions and greater than all our differences — be it of tribe, ethnicity, religion, zone, birth, status, association or affiliation. We must dissolve these lines of divide that exist amongst us. We must stop protecting and projecting narrow interests at the expense of national interests. Arise, a compatriots, we share a common humanity.

We must work to strengthen our practice of the Rule of Law. As Representatives of the people (the keepers of our Constitution), we must commit our powers to guarantee the rights of every Citizen in every situation. Guided by the Fundamental Principles of our Constitution, we must stand firm on the values that built our nation.

Our Economy is in a bad shape, mainly because of our inability, over the years, to make hard choices and sacrifices. Now, we have to take the tough decisions that will turn our economy around. We must meet necessity with courage.

Unemployment is ravaging our youths. At 21.2% unemployment rate, Nigeria can do better and must do better. We have to revive our manufacturing industries and the agricultural sector. We have to massively expand our infrastructure base. We have to re-engineer our services sector. We need to create the enabling environment for creative enterprise to thrive. We must support a private sector led growth. We must make the Nigerian economy more globally competitive.

The implementation of our Power sector reforms demands new process energies. We must work supportively and productively with the Executive to grant these.

Our Citizens live in daily fear due to poor security. We must re-assess and improve our security systems and mechanisms to guarantee safety of lives and properties.

We must be a listening Assembly of elected representatives. We should review how we federate as a nation with the aim of achieving more cumulative efficiencies in the federating units, based on comparative endowment advantages.

Our legislative agenda must focus on making new laws and strengthening existing laws to grant all of these.

Post election and sectional violence and other crises have sought to tear us apart and plant distrust and disunity amongst our people. Peace and justice are our heritage from our heroes past and our hope for today. As the people's representatives, we must heal our people and heal our nation. We must work to redeem the efforts of our political predecessors. We must work to redeem Nigeria. We must stand united in our efforts and sacrifices to build a worthy future for our people.

We acknowledge that the dignity and integrity of this Honourable House have been called to question. We must possess the humility that commands introspection. We accept responsibility for our failures and ask Nigerians for their forgiveness. Mindful of lessons of the past, we will open a new chapter. We will commence a new era of responsibility. This House will act responsibly in all its endeavours. We will be responsive, transparent and accountable in all we do. We must recognize one common truth -- we are the people's representatives. This is their House of Representatives and we are here as their trustees. The primary focus of our legislative activities should therefore, be about our constituents. My period of service as the Speaker of this hallowed Chamber will restore the House of Representatives as an institution where the will of the people is done.

In intra-House affairs, dialogue shall be our most potent weapon. Our administration's modus operandi shall be partnership and not partisanship. You elected me to be the Speaker of the whole House. All of you, my Honourable Colleagues, are my immediate constituency. I shall be a Speaker of and for all. Every voice in this House must be heard and respected. We can disagree without being disagreeable. Our decision-making process shall be predicated on rivers of ideas and robust debates. I choose unity of purpose over conflict and discord. We may be of differing political persuasions but we are one people and we serve one country. In accepting this challenge; I commit to work with all the parties in this Honourable House, for the greater benefit of our people.

Your overwhelming support for us to lead this House irrespective of our partisan divide represents a promising new beginning for the independence of the legislature. We are humbled by this demonstration of confidence and therefore challenged to uphold your trust as we are determined to justify this trust and confidence.

My dear colleagues, in the course of discharging our responsibility to appropriate and oversight for and on the executive, we owe it a duty to our constituents (the Nigerian people) to positively deploy the instrumentality of this sacred trust to make life better for our people. The National Assembly has recorded remarkable strides in the preceding periods but we need to do more in reasonable harmony with the Executive.

In political public relations, shaping perception to promote political harmony has assumed universal application. In our country, in the last 12 years of our return to constitutional democracy, the Legislative Arm of Government has had a less impressive perception in the public domain. We therefore have a duty to reverse this trend through actions and performances within the context of our defined roles as provided in the constitution. Accordingly, may I appeal to our brothers and sisters in the media to partner with us in this endeavour for the good of our people and country Nigeria.

I thank the Clerk to the National Assembly, the Deputy Clerk to the National Assembly, Clerk House of Representatives and other Management staff of the National Assembly for all the work they have put in to make this day historical.

Dear Honourable Colleagues, this is your House, this is your leadership, this is Your mandate. Run with it. Let us all stand up and pray:

Almighty God, Ruler of Heaven and the Earth, We beseech Thee to inspire and guide all our Counsels and Actions, so that we may always walk in the path of Justice, Love and Charity to one another. Help us with Thy Grace to do only those things that will promote the Unity, Happiness and Prosperity of Nigeria. Amen.

The work starts now. Thank you very much.

— MAY GOD BLESS OUR EFFORTS

MAY GOD BLESS US

MAY GOD BLESS THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF NIGERIA.
