8. Remarks by Senate President:

A SPEECH PRESENTED BY SENATOR DAVID ALECHENU BONAVENTURE MARK ON THE OCCASION OF HIS SWEARING-IN AS THE SENATE PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF NIGERIA ON JUNE 5, 2007.

Distinguished Colleagues, Senators of the Federal Republic of Nigeria I feel highly honoured to be called upon you to take the mantle of leadership of the 6th Senate of the Federal Public of Nigeria today. I have tremendous respect for this hallowed Chamber and I am totally committed to sustaining that. My dear Colleagues I am deeply humbled and count it a great honour to be overwhelmingly elected by you as the Senate President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria I am even more humbled that you consider worthy to be reposed with such tremendous confidence as the first among equals at such a critical moment in the history of our National Assembly. It is a rare privilege and a unique call continue to serve to our people.

The Senate, and indeed the entire National Assembly, is a very strategic and important arm of government. No country can effectively operate a robust democracy without a viable and virile legislature. We have responsibility to make laws for the peace, order and good governance of our people and also act as a check on the other arms of government. The concept of oversight functions which the National Assembly is constitutionally empowered to carry out on the other arms of government must be sustained.

Distinguished Colleagues, surely, I cannot succeed in my new assignment without your unalloyed support and cooperation. I therefore wish to seize this opportunity to extend my hand of fellowship to you all and seek your support and usual genuine advice from time to time irrespective of our political and ideological leanings. The Senate of the Federal Republic of Nigeria is one and it shall remain one, united family.

It is our collective responsibility to protect the institution and make it the pride of all. In the same vein, it is my vision that the Senate must collaborate with the other arms of government and other democratic institutions so that jointly we can help to strengthen and deepen our present democratic experience for the good of our country. And we can do this easily without compromising our legislative authority and independence. If public confidence in the Senate must be sustained and strengthened, I call on all of us to rise to the challenges of our collective mandate and demonstrate honest and transparent leadership qualities and exemplary conducts at all times in the discharge of our duties. This Senate unarguably is made up of men and women of proven integrity with track records of accomplishment in various fields of endeavour. We are best suited to help sharpen the future destiny of this great country. We must galvanize and synchronize our energies towards the pursuit of the good of all Nigerians while shunning corrupt tendencies.

Distinguished Colleagues, there is no legislature any where in the world that will succeed if it does not maintain harmonious relationship with other arms of government, particularly the Executive and there is no Executive anywhere in the world practicing democratic governance that would succeed without maintaining a cordial, respectful, mutual, admirable relationship with the legislature. The legislature is the difference between dictatorship and democratic governance. We make the difference.

Finally, I thank you for the confidence you have reposed in me to lead this Senate to higher glory. We would do this by achieving stability in the Senate. We have to put our house in order first before we can carry out the necessary responsibilities reposed on us by the Constitution. Please be assured that with your support and cooperation and by the grace of God Almighty, I shall not disappoint this Senate and the Nation. We have collective responsibilities. You all know that the easiest thing people do is to criticize but the most challenging thing is to come out with ideas that can move the nation from one point to the next.

I want to assure you and the entire country that my tenure will provide a focused and purposeful leadership that will invigorate the Senate and build bridges of understanding amongst the diverse segments of the Nigerian society.

I pray that the Good Lord gives us the courage to speak the truth all the times and the wisdom to judge fairly and with the fear of God.

Long live the Senate of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

Long live the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

Thank you all.
