Request on Federal Government to Confer a Post-Humous National Honour on the Late Chief Moshood Kashimawo Olawale Abiola, Global Businessman, Philanthropist and Pan-Nigerian Politician:

The House:

Notes with nostalgia, the vacuum created since the death of Chief MKO Abiola, on July 8, 1988, especially in the fields of philanthropy, sport, publishing, corporate leadership, national and global politics, among others;

Remembers him today and always, as a true and great son of Nigeria, who touched lives more than any other person in his life time, who contributed to the achievement of religious harmony by building bridges between faith organizations like nobody else, the humane boss who employed Nigerians from all walks of life and treated them with affection and care as if they were members of his family, the man who championed the good cause of Africans in diaspora and spearheaded the global reparations campaign for Africa and Africans for the exploitation and the heinous crime of slavery meted to them;

Also notes with sadness that despite these uncommon qualities of the late Chief MKO Abiola, capped by his victory at the presidential election of June 12, 1993, but which victory was denied him by retrogressive forces in conspiracy with agents of destabilization — that Nigerian authorities have never at any given time conferred a national honour on him, in his eventful life time, or posthumously, despite the fact that many Nigerians and non-Nigerians of dubious value have continued to be decorated with such national honours — year in, year out;

Resolves to:

- (i) urge the Federal Government to confer the highest national honour on the late Chief MKO Abiola, posthumously, in recognition of his unprecedented achievements, contributions and sacrifice to the unity, peace, progress and development of Nigeria as well as Africa and the world; and

- (ii) mandate the Committee on Legislative Compliance to ensure enforcement and report back within three (3) weeks (Hon. Muhammed Sani Zorro — Gumel/Gagarawa/Mai Gatari/Sule Tankarkar Federal Constituency).

Debate.

Agreed to.
